GT RADIAL DRIFTER AMANDIO WINS CHAMPION IN 2022 DRIFT NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

After a 2 years hiatus, now the 2022 Drift National Championship held again at the J99Maxx Drift Circuit, Karawaci, Tangerang, on Saturday, June 11, 2022. In this event there are 35 drifters participating in 2 categories. In the Pro class 2 category there are 18 drifters and in the Pro class there are 17 drifters.

Emmanuelle Amandio, one of the flagship drifters of the LFN Drift Team supported by GT Radial, successfully won first place in the 2022 Drift National Championship using GT Radial Champiro SX2. Amandio, also appreciates the support given by GT Radial in providing quality tires that are very commonly relied on.

TGRI DOMINATES THE PODIUM IN THE FIRST ROUND OF THE 2022 SLALOM NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP

The Champiro SX2 and Champiro GTX Pro tires have proven their toughness through the Toyota Gazoo Racing Indonesia Team (TGRI) which managed to dominate the podium in the inaugural series of the MLDSPOT Autokhana Slalom 2022 National Championship held at the Gelora Satria Circuit, Purwokerto, on 18 June 2022.

The event took place during the scorching hot day and was saved by a rainy evening during the final class round. All TGRI vehicles were fitted with the Champiro SX2 tires and Champiro GTX Pro tires, which are known for their reliable wet and dry performance. The fierce race managed to bring TGRI to the top 3 for class A and class F. Likewise, Alinka Hardianti, TGRI's celebrated female racer, also managed to win the 1st place in the Women's class.

GT Radial, the official tire for TGRI, is always committed in working with racers to improve its tire line (Champro SX2 and Champro GTX Pro). Even with a proven winning record, GT Radial will continue to use all racing events as a laboratory ground to improve and maximize the performance to support the development of motorsport in Indonesia.

GT Radial has consistently supported the Slalom National Championship for several years. GT Radial will continue to use this event as a laboratory ground to always improve and maximize the performance of its products to support the development of motorsport in Indonesia.

GT RADIAL SUPPORTS DAIHATSU SAFETY DRIVING EVENT

Daihatsu, one of the pioneers of Road Safety and Safety Driving campaign continues to be committed in the road safety of motorists in Indonesia by initiating a safety driving event themed: “Indoneisan Pioneers, Lets Do Safe Traffic”.
